

Sinusitis Natural cure Programs

Before taking the medical treatment path, more and more sinusitis sufferers check out treat programs first. There are a lot of natural remedies or treatments available out there to relieve you of your sinusitis symptoms.

Healing Salts

Healing salts can eliminate nasal secretions. To take action, mix 1 teaspoon of non-iodized sodium or sea salt with 2 cups of warm water and a pinch of baking soda. Pour it into a shot glass, tilt your head back, close one nostril with your thumb, and sniff the answer along with the open nostril. Then blow your nose gently. Repeat on the other side.

Homemade Sinus Inhaler

Home made nasal inhaler can help with your nose congestion. For this, you will need the following: tsp. course salt drops eucalyptus essential oil.

- Place the salt in a small glass vial with a tight lid and add oil.
- The sodium will absorb the oil and provide a convenient way to transport the particular oil without danger of spilling it.
- Open the vial and breathe in deeply, as needed.
- This same technique can be used with any other gas.

Bath Salts

Bath salts have been known to help with sinus headaches.

You Will Need: Glasses Epsom Salts (or Salts of Your Choice)

Cup Peppermint glass Spearmint drops Pepper mint gas declines Eucalyptus important oil.

- Grind the mints in your mortar and pestle, then sift through a fine mesh kitchen strainer, and add them to the salt.
- A good couple of each is enough.
- If you still need to drive out your sinuses, obtain a half cup of pepper/spearmint, put it in a bowl, and toss in a cup or so hot water.
- Let it sit covered for a bit and then carefully start breathing the steam.

Use about 1/4

1/3 cup of the combination every bath. You can also blend the salts and dried herbs beforehand, and when the need for the bath arises, to add the essential oils after that to guarantee potency. A decent amount would probably always be 4 drops peppermint, 2 drops eucalyptus per bath. Some people may be more sensitive to the peppermint, so be sure they lack a great adverse effect before using these salts.
